

Appointment of Anne Ferro as Administrator of FMCSA

In a vote on November 5, 2009, the United States Senate confirmed the appointment of Anne Ferro as the new Administrator to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA).

Ferro's nomination passed through the Senate Commerce, Science, and Transportation Committee two weeks ago with one dissenting vote. Her confirmation comes at the heels of FMCSA's announcement to completely rewrite the current Hours-of-Service regulations.